Dear Parents,

Re: Monthly Sharing Session 3 – How to Deal with Children Falling in Love

Following the first two Monthly Sharing Sessions which attracted very encouraging feedback, we are pleased to announce the 3rd session scheduled for the second Saturday afternoon after the Easter Break. In this round, we are pleased to have Mr. Tom Ho, a Clinical Psychologist from the Health Department, as the guest speaker to share with us how parents should deal with their teenage children falling in love.

It is not at all uncommon nowadays to see teenagers falling in love with their peers, or even publicly displaying their intimate relationship. No matter this stems from curiosity, fantasies, psychological needs, peer influence or any other causes, we as parents are naturally concerned about its possible impacts on their school lives and personal development. Shall we stop it right away, reluctantly tolerate it or accept it with pleasure? As this is something we all have to face sooner or later, it may help if we know how to handle it, without damaging the parent-child relationship or causing any adverse consequences, or even turn it into a blessing! Through Mr Ho's sharing and our mutual sharing, we should be able to gather some useful tips for addressing the issue more appropriately and wisely.

Here are the details of our upcoming Monthly Sharing Session:

- Date: 7 May 2011 (Saturday)
- Time: 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm
- Venue: Activity Centre, G/F, HKUGA College
- Topic: How to Deal with Children Falling in Love

To facilitate our preparation work, please return the reply slip to us via your child's Class Teacher or by fax to 2870-8825 or by email to info@hkugacpta.org.hk by 13 April 2011 (Wednesday). Please arrive 15 minutes earlier for registration and kindly note that students are not expected to attend.

Thanks a lot for your kind attention and looking forward to another fruitful sharing session with you all!

Sincerely yours,
 Parent Education Group
